REPORT.

TO HIS GRACE JAMES DUKE OF ABERCORN, K.G., &c., &c., &c.,
LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

Queen's University, Dublin Castle,
June 1, 1875.

May it please your Grace,

As Chancellor of the Queen's University in Ireland, it becomes my duty, in compliance with the provisions of Her Majesty's Charter, to furnish to your Grace the Report of the Condition and Progress of the University since the 1st June, 1874.

The General University Examinations during the period of this Report commenced on the 25th of September, and terminated on the 13th of October, 1874. Examinations for Degrees in the Faculty of Medicine were also held in June, 1874, and First University Examinations in Arts and Engineering were also held in January, 1875. At these various Examinations 602* Candidates presented themselves. Lists of those who were successful are annexed, and a List of the Students Matriculated in the University since the 1st of October last.

In addition to these Examinations for Members of the University, Examinations of Candidates who are not Members of the University, both Male and Female, were held in the month of June, 1874.

The principal public meeting of the University, to confer degrees and diplomas, and distribute prizes, was held in St. Patrick's

* In this number the candidates who underwent more than one distinct University Examination within the year are enumerated separately. This happened in 148 cases, so that the number of individuals examined was 454.

App. I. Hall, Dublin Castle, on the 14th of October last. An account of the proceedings is appended to this Report.

The following papers are also annexed for your Grace's information :—

App. III. The Estimate for the year.

App. IV. The Cash Account for the year.

App. V. A Return of the several Meetings of the Senate since my last Report.

I have the honour to be

Your Grace's

Obedient and faithful Servant,

LEINSTER,

Chancellor.

Public Meeting.

PUBLIC MEETING of the QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY in IRELAND, held in St. Patrick's Hall, Dublin Castle, on the 14th October, 1874.

AFTER the close of the Examinations of the year 1874, a public meeting of the Queen's University was held in Dublin Castle on the 14th October, 1874, for conferring degrees, diplomas, and prizes.

A large number of distinguished persons having taken their places in the Examination Hall, Sir Dominic J. Corrigan, Baronet, Vice-Chancellor of the University, the Senate, the Professors and Examiners, and the Candidates, entered it in procession.

The VICE-CHANCELLOR (in the absence of His Grace the Duke of Leinster, Chancellor of the University) opened the meeting with the following address :—

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

The chair from which I now address this assembly would have been occupied by the Chancellor but for the domestic calamity which has fallen on his house within the last few days, in the death of the Duke of Leinster, full of years, and of good name. I cannot let pass this opportunity of expressing our sympathy with our Chancellor on the occasion, and I think there could not be a more fitting opportunity than the present to pay the tribute of our respect to the memory of the departed illustrious man who has just passed away from among us, and whose obsequies have been this day carried out in accordance with his own wishes and characteristic unobtrusiveness, as a strictly private ceremonial. There could not be a more fitting assemblage than this from which to offer a tribute to departed worth and rank. For four score and four years he lived amongst us, illustrious in name, position, rank, and estate, the favoured of his Sovereign. But he had more than this to recommend his life for imitation—far more than wealth, rank, and position could achieve. He was good; and though the title of "The Good Duke" may not be inscribed in metal or on marble, it will be engraved in all your memories; and my young friends, whom I see around me, will, I hope, carry with them the recollection of the life of "The Good Duke," and learn from a knowledge of his life that goodness far transcends wealth and power and position, and follow his example, prizing goodness above all, and making it your guiding star, wherever your varying paths may be. The Queen's University has now arrived at the termination of its twenty-fourth year. Its students were not only examined when presenting themselves for degrees, but from time to time during the progress of their studies. Those examinations were held three times in the year, in January, in the beginning of summer, and in autumn. The tables of returns show that the graduates of this University—and this is a part of the returns of which I am always proud—continue to hold their places with credit and honour in the several competitive examinations that took place for distinctions and in the public service. In the course of the year, Mr. Lynam, B.A., Queen's College, Galway, obtained first place by competition at the examination for the civil service of Ceylon. Mr. Leslie A. S. Porter, B.A., Queen's College, Belfast, obtained a place in the open competition for the civil service of India. Mr. Roche, Queen's College, Cork, also obtained a place in the open competition for the civil service of India. Mr. Blyth, B.A., Queen's College, Cork, passed the final examination for the civil service of India. Mr. Harrison, M.A., Queen's College, Galway, passed the final examination for the civil service of India. Mr. John H. McFarland, M.A., Queen's College, Belfast, has obtained in St. John's College, Cambridge, a mathematical foundation scholarship, and, on account of his very superior answering, has received in addition a special exhibition. Mr. J. E. C. Monroe, Queen's College, Belfast, has obtained the valuable scholarship in law in Downing College, Cambridge, besides the first Whewell University scholarship in law, moral and political philosophy, the competition being open to the members of all the colleges of Cambridge University, and the examiners having been Sir Wm. V. Harcourt, M.P., Professor Fawcett, M.P., the Master of Trinity College, and the Regius Professor of Law. William Bottomley, B.E., Queen's College, Belfast, has been recently decorated by his Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, for his distinguished services in the Brazilian Telegraph Department. Mr. Louis Richard Dawson, M.D., M.CH., Queen's College, Belfast; Mr. John Lane Corbett, M.D., M.CH., Queen's College, Cork; Mr. John E. V. Foss, M.D., Queen's College, Cork; Mr. Joseph Andrew Gormley, M.D., M.CH., Queen's College, Galway; Mr. Thomas J. Galloway, M.D., M.CH., Queen's College, Cork; Mr. Benjamin R. Jago, B.A., M.D., M.CH., Queen's College, Cork; and Mr. Charles J. MacCartie, B.A., M.D., M.CH., Queen's College, Cork, have obtained places in the Army Medical Service, since the last public meeting of the University, in a competition open to graduates in medicine and surgery from all the universities and licensing bodies of the United Kingdom. C. V. Coates, Queen's College, Belfast, who takes his degree of M.A. this day, has been awarded a foundation scholarship in Trinity College, Cambridge, and also holds a mathematical scholarship in the same college. William E. Breton, M.D. and M.CH., has obtained third place at the competition for the naval medical service. I think you will agree with me that our University has good reason to be proud of its graduates. The pleasing duty now remains of awarding the degrees and honours.
